

Researching Your Welsh Ancestors

Course Book List

Students often ask us for suggested additional reading for our courses. For most of our courses any additional reading is up to you. For our Intermediate and Advanced Certificates courses, students generally attain higher marks when demonstrating evidence of additional reading and there are some compulsory texts for our Advanced Certificate courses.

Here is some optional further reading for this course, in the form of books that you may want to source before your course starts. There may be additional reading material referenced in the course notes.

- E T Davies. Religion and Society in the Nineteenth Century (Christopher Davies, Llandybie, 1981)
- John Davies. A History of Wales (Allen Lane, London, 1993, revised 2007)
- Dafydd Ifans. Nonconformist Registers of Wales (Aberystwyth: National Library of Wales and Welsh County Archivists' Group, 1994)
- G H Jenkins. A Concise History of Wales (Cambridge University Press, 2007)
- Annie Lloyd. Welsh Place and Farm Names (Annie Lloyd, 1998)
- John and Sheila Rowland. Second Stages in Researching Welsh Ancestry (FFHS and Genealogical Publishing Company, 1999)
- John and Sheila Rowlands. The Surnames of Wales (FFHS and Genealogical Publishing Company, 1996)
- John and Sheila Rowlands. Welsh Family History: A guide to research (Federation of Family History Societies, 1998)
- C J Williams & J Watts-Williams. Parish Registers of Wales / Cofrestrï Plwyf Cymru (National Library of Wales, Aberystwyth, 2000)