

Understanding Title Deeds

Course Book List

Students often ask us for suggested additional reading for our courses. For most of our courses any additional reading is up to you. For our Intermediate and Advanced Certificates courses, students generally attain higher marks when demonstrating evidence of additional reading and there are some compulsory texts for our Advanced Certificate courses.

The set book for this course is Nat Alcock's Tracing History through Title Deeds.

Set text (compulsory reading):

- Nat Alcock, Tracing History through Title Deeds: A Guide for Family and Local Historians, Pen & Sword, 2017.

Here is some optional further reading for this course, in the form of books that you may want to source before your course starts. There may be additional reading material referenced in the course notes.

- J. Cornwall, An Introduction to Reading Old Title Deeds, 2nd Edition (Birmingham, 1997)
- A.A. Dibben Title Deeds 13th to 19th centuries (The Historical Association. 1971)
- Tim Wormleighton, Title Deeds for Family Historians (Family History Partnership 2012)
